

A photograph of a modern interior space. On the left, a large window is covered with white horizontal blinds, allowing bright light to filter through. In the center, a dark-colored door is slightly ajar. To the right, a staircase with dark steps and a white wall is visible, featuring a sleek, metallic handrail. The walls are a light, neutral color, and the floor appears to be a dark, polished material. A faint watermark is visible across the center of the image.
